This season, Italian brand Teckell launches its iconic intervallo – a luxurious foosball table that doubles as a coffee table. Constructed entirely of crystal glass, aluminium and wood, the intervallo is put together by skilled Italian artisans using the most sophisticated technology. Every individual table is constructed with precision and crafted as a unique piece of art. Ahead of the game, the Teckell intervallo gives a new perspective to the typical home furnishings. The Teckell intervallo is now available at HAÜS, in either walnut or ash finishing.

HAÜS also carries German brand COR, a longstanding brand that manufactures exceptional upholstered furniture. The open-based version of Conseta has included an easy chair model with reduced seat depth and graceful armrests on narrow skids. This streamlined design is ideal for smaller rooms. The sofas, which are also available with narrow skids and armrests, have also been updated with the new dimensions. Offering modular flexibility, Conseta is adaptable and will be able to fit into countless design possibilities. COR Conseta is now available at HAÜS. Other pieces from COR such as the Bahir lounge sofas, the Shrimp chairs, Jalis sofa and bedframe and Circo chairs will be available for order via HAÜS.
